“Behind every successful campaign, there’s an even better partnership,” said Stan Richards, Principal of The Richards Group. “We couldn’t be more delighted with our friends at America’s Best, nor could we be prouder of the success we’ve achieved together. Thank you for this honor.”
Awards were presented during National Vision’s annual Vendor Conference and charity golf tournament event, held October 10th and 11th at Chateau Elan in Braselton, Ga. All proceeds from the event – totaling more than $320,000 this year – benefit 20/20 Quest Inc., National Vision’s foundation, which supports organizations helping people in need of vision care and services around the world with monetary and product donations.

National Vision’s mission to make quality eye care and eyewear more affordable and accessible is based on the belief that people deserve to see their best to live their best – even people living on a budget. All eye care professionals practicing in National Vision locations provide quality eye exams that meet or exceed the standards set forth by the American Optometric Association and the states in which they operate.
